

Alice F. Paylor of Rosen Hagood appointed as SC State Delegate to ABA House of Delegates

May 2, 2016

The South Carolina Bar's Board of Governors appointed Rosen Hagood attorney, Alice F. Paylor, to an unexpired term as a South Carolina State Delegate to the American Bar Association (ABA) House of Delegates. In this position, Paylor will represent the state Bar's positions at the semiannual meetings of the ABA House of Delegates.

As an active member of the South Carolina Bar, Paylor served on the Bar's Board of Governors from 2005-2015, including the positions of secretary, treasurer, and president. In the past she has also been on the Conventions Committee and Judicial Qualifications Committee, secretary/treasurer of the Young Lawyers Division, and Chair of the House of Delegates.

Paylor focuses her practice in the areas of complex commercial litigation, employment litigation, school law, and zoning law. She is a permanent member of the Fourth Circuit Judicial Conference, is AV Preeminent® rated by Martindale-Hubbell®, and has been recognized by both Best Lawyers® and Super Lawyers®.

The South Carolina Bar, which has a membership of more than 15,000 lawyers, is dedicated to advancing justice, professionalism, and understanding of the law.

About Rosen Hagood

Rosen Hagood is a Charleston-based law firm with a long record of pursuing and defending complex civil claims. For over six decades, attorneys at our firm have followed our founders' vision – aggressively seeking justice on behalf of our clients. Our distinguished law firm represents businesses, individuals, and government entities throughout the state in complex litigation and damages claims in the areas of business and commercial litigation, construction law, products liability, professional liability, negligence, wrongful death, traumatic brain injury, personal injury, family law, employment, and probate and estate litigation.