Born and raised in Mt. Pleasant, South Carolina, Mary Harriet is proud to return to practice law in the Charleston area. Mary Harriet is an associate practicing in the areas of business and commercial litigation, personal injury, probate, estate, and trust litigation, employment and labor law, and business and corporate law.

Prior to joining Rosen Hagood, Mary Harriet worked as a law clerk for the firm during the summer of 2020. She was also a law clerk for the National Advocacy Center in Columbia, South Carolina. Mary Harriet graduated cum laude from the University of South Carolina School of Law and was named to the Order of the Wig and Robe. During law school, she served as the Symposium Editor for the South Carolina Journal of International Law and Business, a Peer Mentor for the Student Bar Association, and was a member of Women in Law.

Mary Harriet received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics and a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Hispanic Studies from Davidson College. While at Davidson, she was also a member and captain of the Davidson College Volleyball Team and spent a semester abroad in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Outside of her law practice, Mary Harriet enjoys spending time with her family and friends on the boat and at the beach, traveling to new places, and playing beach volleyball.
