Blanchard Teaches Employment Law Course at SC Bar Event

October 12, 2010

On October 12, 2010, Frank Blanchard taught an employment law course as part of the SC Bar's Law School for Non-Lawyers series of seminars and lectures. Mr. Blanchard presented to a group of about 35 individuals. He covered several topics including the at-will employment doctrine, common expections to at-will employment, the federal discrimination statutes, the Family Medical Leave Act, the South Carolina Payment of Wages Act, and Non-Compete Agreements. The seminar was held on the Trident Technical College's campus in North Charleston, South Carolina.

©2026 Rosen Hagood All Rights Reserved