

Chip Bruorton Achieves Martindale-Hubbell BV Distinguished Rating

December 14, 2011

CHARLESTON, SC (December 14, 2011)-Rosen, Rosen & Hagood, LLC is pleased to announce that James Atkinson “Chip” Bruorton IV has been awarded the BV Distinguished rating by the Martindale-Hubbell®, the country’s leading legal directory.

As part of the Martindale-Hubbell PEER REVIEW RATINGS™, the BV Distinguished certification results from an objective evaluation of Bruorton’s high ethical standards and professional ability. This achievement is a testament to Bruorton’s dedication and high standing as an attorney as judged by other members of the bar and the judiciary.

Bruorton has been an attorney with Rosen, Rosen & Hagood since 2003 and focuses his practice in the areas of construction litigation, commercial business litigation, condemnation and surety law. He was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 2003 and is a member of various bar organizations, the Charleston Chamber of Commerce and the Carolinas Association of General Contractors. Bruorton currently serves on the South Carolina Bar Fee Dispute Resolution Committee and volunteers his time as a youth football, basketball and soccer coach for the Town of Mount Pleasant and the Charleston YMCA. He is a 2000 graduate of Clemson University and a 2003 graduate of the University of Tennessee College of Law.

About Rosen, Rosen & Hagood, LLC

Rosen, Rosen & Hagood is a Charleston-based law firm that focuses on obtaining results for its clients with complex litigation and damages claims in the areas of business and commercial litigation, construction, products liability, medical malpractice, negligence, wrongful death, traumatic brain injury, personal injury, employment, and family law.