

Elizabeth Nicholson Recognized as One of SC Bar YLD's Stars of the Quarter

March 14, 2018

Rosen Hagood is pleased to announce that Elizabeth Nicholson received the South Carolina Bar Young Lawyers Division's (YLD) "Star of the Quarter" award.

Elizabeth was recognized for her hard work and contributions in planning Bowling Buddies, an annual fundraiser to support the Special Olympics of South Carolina. The event pairs Special Olympic athletes with young lawyers for a night of bowling, all while raising funds for the Special Olympics.

Passionate about giving back, Elizabeth is actively involved with the YLD's efforts to support and advocate for the Special Olympics and the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

Elizabeth is an associate at Rosen Hagood where she practices in the areas of business and commercial litigation, construction law and litigation, and personal injury.
