

Firm attorney speaks to Charleston Apartment Association

December 4, 2006

Attorney Frank Blanchard was the featured instructor at a day-long seminar conducted by the Charleston Apartment Association on November 14, 2006. Mr. Blanchard covered various legal aspects and responsibilities applicable to apartment managers. The class was sponsored by the National Apartment Association Education Institute (NAAEI) and was attended by local apartment managers from the tri-county area. The class is one of nine modules that participants will complete to receive the Certified Apartment Manager (CAM) designation.
