Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory Awards "AV Preeminent" to Rosen Hagood Attorney

October 29, 2013

James A. "Chip" Bruorton, IV, an attorney at Rosen Hagood, was recently awarded the "AV Preeminent" rating by the LexisNexis Martindale-Hubbell® Peer Review Ratings™ directory. The AV rating is the highest designation given by Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review and is a testament to the fact that the peers of Mr. Bruorton rank him at the highest level of ethical and professional excellence.

During his decade with the firm, Chip has represented private and public owners, architects, contractors, construction managers, subcontractors, and bonding companies, as well as both plaintiffs and defendants in construction litigation matters and commercial and business litigation matters.

He is admitted to practice in both federal and state court for the State of South Carolina and is a member of the Charleston County Bar Association, the South Carolina Bar, and the American Bar Association. He is actively involved in the American Bar Association's Forum on the Construction Industry and the Carolina Association of General Contractors (CAGC). He currently serves on the South Carolina Bar Fee Dispute Resolution Committee and the Supplier Council of the CAGC.

The LexisNexis Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings contain profiles for more than a million lawyers and firms and its ratings serve as an objective indicator of a lawyer's legal ability in the areas of legal knowledge, analytical capabilities, judgment, communication ability and legal experience, and general ethical standards such as adherence to professional standards of conduct and ethics, including reliability and diligence.
