

Nine Rosen Hagood Attorneys Recognized as Legal Elite of the Lowcountry

December 4, 2019

Charleston, SC (October 1, 2019) It is one thing to declare yourself the best, but when your peers arrive at the same conclusion, it means something.

Charleston Business Magazine has released its third annual Legal Elite of the Lowcountry list, which recognizes attorneys based on peer nominations across twenty practice areas. Nine of Rosen Hagood's thirteen attorneys were recognized in various practice areas, with three attorneys being named "Top Attorney" in their practice areas.

Rosen Hagood's 2019 Legal Elite:

Chip Bruorton – Construction

Alex Cash – Family Law

Rene Dukes – Family Law, Labor & Employment, and Education

Andrew Gowdown – Personal Injury

Brew Hagood – Construction

Tim Muller – Construction

Beth Palmer – Business Litigation and Education

Alice Paylor – Business Litigation and Employment

John Rosen – Corporate Law, Mergers & Acquisitions

Rosen Hagood's 2019 Legal Elite Top Attorneys:

Alex Cash – Family Law

Andrew Gowdown – Personal Injury

John Rosen – Corporate Law, Mergers & Acquisitions

Co-Managing Partner of the firm Brew Hagood said, "We are delighted that so many of our attorneys have been recognized. For over seventy years, Rosen Hagood has provided legal counsel to businesses and individuals both in Charleston, and across the state. It is gratifying that their professionalism, judgment, and ability to provide top-notch client service has been honored by their peers."