Rosen Hagood Attorney Becomes Member of South Carolina Bar House of Delegates

July 12, 2014

Rosen Hagood is pleased to announce that John E. Rosen has become a member of the South Carolina Bar House of Delegates. The House of Delegates establishes policy for the Bar. It meets at least twice a year and includes delegates from each judicial circuit. Rosen is a member representing the Ninth Judicial Circuit.

“We are proud to have John serving as a member of the House of Delegates,” said Richard Rosen, managing partner of the firm. “The firm has a long history of leadership within the South Carolina Bar and John will be a great asset.”

Rosen’s practice includes corporate and business transactions and commercial real estate issues. He advises corporate clients throughout the life cycle of their business, from business formations and governance to contract negotiations, mergers and acquisitions and general corporate issues to shareholder oppression and buyout litigation.

©2026 Rosen Hagood All Rights Reserved |