

Rosen Hagood Attorney Elected to Executive Council of the NCBP

August 25, 2014

Rosen Hagood is pleased to announce that Alice Paylor has been elected to the Executive Council of the National Conference of Bar Presidents (NCBP).

Members of the Council serve three-year terms, and work with the NCBP Officers to govern and administer all NCBP programs. Executive Council members are selected by the NCBP Nominating Committee during the Annual Meeting in August each year.

"We are proud of Alice's commitment to leadership in the profession," said Richard Rosen, managing partner of the firm. "As immediate past-president of the South Carolina Bar, Alice will bring great value and insight to the Executive Council."

Paylor spoke at the NCBP conference earlier this month. Her presentation addressed attacks on lawyers and the independence of the judiciary.

Paylor's practice focuses primarily on complex commercial litigation, employment litigation, and school law. Paylor holds the highest professional rankings, including the Martindale-Hubbell AV rating. She is also listed in The Best Lawyers in America for commercial litigation and litigation – labor and employment.
