Rosen Hagood Attorney Elizabeth Nicholson Admitted to Practice Law in Georgia

April 19, 2021

Charleston, SC. (April 19, 2021) – Rosen Hagood is pleased to announce that attorney Elizabeth Nicholson has been licensed to practice law in Georgia.

"We're proud of Elizabeth for taking the initiative to become licensed to practice in Georgia," said partner Chip Bruorton. "As a neighboring state, Elizabeth's license will allow our firm to grow its footprint in the construction law practice and other practice areas into Georgia." With the addition of Nicholson's license in Georgia, Rosen Hagood now has lawyers licensed to practice in South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, and Michigan.

Nicholson practices in the areas of personal injury, employment, probate, and construction law and litigation. Prior to joining Rosen Hagood, Elizabeth served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable R. Lawton McIntosh, Tenth Judicial Circuit, and was a law clerk with Rosen Hagood during law school.

About Rosen Hagood:
For over seventy years, Rosen Hagood has been a mainstay of the Charleston legal and business community. The firm provides a full spectrum of legal services, including business and commercial litigation, construction law, education and school law, probate and trust litigation, personal injury, and family law. To learn more, visit www.rosenhagood.com.

©2026 Rosen Hagood All Rights Reserved |