

Rosen Hagood Attorney, Elizabeth Palmer, Recipient of Star of the Quarter Award, SC Bar Young Lawyer

April 28, 2015

Rosen Hagood is pleased to announce that Elizabeth “Beth” Palmer has received the Star of the Quarter Award from the SC Bar Young Lawyers Division (YLD).

The Stars of the Quarter are nominated by fellow YLD members and chosen by the current YLD president.

One of seven attorneys receiving the award, Palmer was recognized for her involvement with the American Bar Association YLD’s service project, Project Street Youth, which organizes legal clinics for homeless and transitional youth throughout the state.

In addition to her leadership role in the South Carolina Bar YLD, Palmer serves as Director of Public Service for the American Bar Association YLD. Palmer focuses her practice in the areas of business and commercial litigation, employment law, personal injury and education law.
