

Rosen Hagood Attorney Named Chair of Primerus Personal Injury Institute

January 11, 2017

Andrew Gowdown, a partner with Rosen Hagood, was recently named the 2016-2017 Chair of the Primerus Personal Injury Institute (PPII) at the 2016 Primerus Global Conference.

Primerus is an international network of top-rated, independent, boutique law firms, of which Rosen Hagood is a member. An institute within Primerus, the PPII is a group of 30 plus trial lawyer member firms that represent plaintiffs and consumers nationwide in personal injury and other civil litigation related matters.

“It is a great privilege to serve as chair of the PPII,” Gowdown said. “I look forward to leading our group as we continue to grow our institute and continue to provide high quality legal representation to our clients across the country.”

As the chair of the PPII, Gowdown also serves on its Executive Committee. Before becoming a member of the Executive Committee, he served as the Chair of the Primerus Young Lawyers Section, of which he was a founding member. Gowdown focuses his legal practice on representing clients in catastrophic personal injury, traumatic brain injury, and products liability cases.
