Rosen Hagood Attorney Recognized as SC Bar YLD Star of the Quarter

November 15, 2016

Liam Duffy, an associate with Rosen Hagood, was recently named one of the Stars of the Quarter for the South Carolina Bar Young Lawyers Division (YLD).

Duffy was recognized for his involvement as co-chair of the Courthouse Keys Committee, a group that provides opportunities for young lawyers to connect and develop relationships with South Carolina's many state and federal judges. As co-chair of that committee, Duffy has worked with other members of the YLD to organize various events including happy hours, skeet shoots, and Q&A sessions with South Carolina judges throughout the state.

In addition to his involvement with the South Carolina Bar, Duffy is a member of the American Bar Association (ABA) where he serves as the Chair of the YLD's Law Practice Committee. Duffy focuses his practice in the areas of complex commercial litigation, business law, and trust and estate litigation.
