Rosen Hagood Managing Partner Takes Leadership Role in Charleston Chapter of ABOTA

April 27, 2015

Rosen Hagood is pleased to announce that Richard S. Rosen has been elected to serve as the President of the Charleston Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA).

As part of its mission, ABOTA works to elevate the standards of integrity, honor, and courtesy in the legal profession. ABOTA supports further education and training of trial lawyers and promotes the efficient administration of justice and constant improvement of the law.

"I am honored to be a member of ABOTA and to serve as the president of the Charleston Chapter," said Rosen.

Rosen is an experienced litigation attorney focusing his practice in the areas of business and probate litigation and personal injury. During his legal career he has also represented clients in cases involving products liability, securities fraud, shareholder and partner disputes, and unfair trade practices. Rosen is the managing partner of the firm and holds the highest professional rankings, including the Martindale-Hubbell AV rating and is listed in the Best Lawyers in America for business litigation, personal injury, and probate and trust litigation. He has also been repeatedly named one of the top 25 lawyers in South Carolina by Super Lawyers magazine.
