Rosen Hagood Partner, Tim Muller Admitted to Michigan Bar

Related Attorneys
Timothy "Tim" J.W. Muller

July 29, 2021

Charleston, SC. (July 27, 2021) – Rosen Hagood is pleased to announce that attorney Tim Muller has been admitted to practice law in Michigan.

"Being originally from Michigan, and having continued relationships in the state, I am honored to be admitted to practice law in Michigan," said partner Tim Muller. "Should any South Carolina business or individual require legal assistance in Michigan or any Michigan business or individual need legal services in South Carolina, it would be my pleasure to be of assistance."

Muller practices in the areas of construction, government and administrative law, and business and securities litigation. He holds the AV rating by Martindale-Hubbell. Muller is a graduate of Grand Valley State University and Charleston School of Law.

About Rosen Hagood:

For over seventy years, Rosen Hagood has been a mainstay of the Charleston legal and business community. The firm provides a full spectrum of legal services, including business and commercial litigation, construction law, education and school law, probate and trust litigation, personal injury, and family law. To learn more, visit www.rosenhagood.com .

©2026 Rosen Hagood All Rights Reserved | Charleston, SC