

Rosen Hagood Welcomes New Attorney

Related Attorneys

Mary Harriet Moore

November 28, 2021

Charleston, SC. (November 17, 2021) – Rosen Hagood is pleased to announce that Mary Harriet Moore has joined the firm as an associate attorney. Moore practices in the areas of employment law, construction law and litigation, business and commercial litigation, and probate, estate, and trust litigation.

“We are delighted to welcome Mary Harriet to the firm,” said co-managing partner, Brew Hagood. “Her drive and dedication to her work will be a valuable asset to our clients and our team.”

Moore is a graduate of the Davidson College (2018) with a bachelor of arts degree in economics and Hispanic studies, and the University of South Carolina School of Law (2021).

About Rosen Hagood:

For over seventy years, Rosen Hagood has been a mainstay of the Charleston legal and business community. The firm provides a full spectrum of legal services, including business and commercial litigation, construction law, education and school law, probate and trust litigation, personal injury, and family law. To learn more, visit www.rosenhagood.com.